American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law

presents

International Forensic Psychiatry: British and American Perspectives

Thursday and Friday, April 16-17th, 2009

The Institute of Psychiatry
De Crespigny Park, London SE5 8AF

Thursday, April 16th, will feature a site visit to the Dangerous People with Severe Personality Disorders (DSPD) Programme in north London.

The Academic Day on Friday, April 17th, will feature internationally renowned researchers and clinicians in the field of forensic psychiatry from both the United Kingdom and the United States. Topics for presentation and discussion will include the problem of pre-arraignment evaluations, a workshop in the interpersonal aspects of working with personality disordered patients in correctional settings, and a case presentation focusing on neuropsychiatry and malingering, featuring both American and British discussants.

The Tri-State Chapter is recruiting speakers and discussants for the case conference, if you would be interested in participating in addition to attending the academic day.

Registration Fees: $150

Checks should be made payable to "Tri-State Chapter of AAPL."
