The Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Integrity and Independence require that we disqualify individuals who refuse to provide the information from involvement in the planning and implementation of accredited continuing education. Thank you for your diligence and assistance. If you have questions please contact us at office@AAPL.org or 800-331-1389.

Please disclose all financial relationships that you have had in the past 24 months with ineligible companies (see definition below). For each financial relationship, enter the name of the ineligible company and the nature of the financial relationship(s). There is no minimum threshold; we ask that you disclose all financial relationships, regardless of the amount, with ineligible companies. You should disclose all financial relationships regardless of the potential relevance of each relationship to the education.

Name of Ineligible Company An ineligible company is any entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. For specific examples of ineligible companies, visit accme.org/standards .	Nature of Financial Relationship Examples of financial relationships include employee, researcher, consultant, advisor, speaker, independent contractor, royalties, executive role, and ownership interest. Individual stocks and stock options should be disclosed. Research funding from ineligible companies should be disclosed by the principal or named investigator even if that individual's institution receives the research grant and manages the funds.	Has the Relationship Ended? If the financial relationship existed during the last 24 months, but has now ended, please check the box in this column. This will help the education staff determine if any mitigation steps need to be taken.
Example: ABC Company	Consultant	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
